

Laylatul Qadr the night of Qadr in Ramadan

Why it was Named the Night of Qadr (Power/Majesty)

Some said: "It is due to its mightiness and virtues." This is as said by Allah Almighty: -ۚ
"They (the Jews, the pagans, idolaters etc.) did not estimate Allah with an estimation due to him..." (Al-An'am: 91.)

This implies that it (the night) is of high status due to the revelation of Al Qur'an and the .descent of the angels, blessings, mercy and forgiveness in it

Some said: "Al Qadar implies 'restrictions'." This is evident in the statement of Allah -ۚ Almighty: "... and he whose resources are restricted, let him spend according to what Allah has given him." (At-Talaq: 7). Restriction here implies hiding it from knowing on which night
.it actually occurs

Some said: "Al Qadar implies 'destiny', " and this means that Allah decrees the affairs of -ۚ the next year that night. This is due to the statement of Allah Almighty: "Therein (that night) is decreed every matter of ordainment." (Ad-Dukhan: 4) [Fathul Bari (4/255).]
